

1888, ch. 164.

153. It shall not be lawful for any person or body corporate to sell beer or home-made wines in Saint Peter's district; and any person violating the provisions of this section shall, upon indictment and conviction therefor, be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than two hundred dollars, and be imprisoned in the county jail sixty days for each and every offence.

Ibid.

154. It shall not be lawful for the clerk of the circuit court for Somerset county to issue any license to sell beer and home-made wines to any person or body corporate in said Saint Peter's district.

LITTLE ANNESSESSEX RIVER.

1867, ch. 295.

155. It shall not be lawful to throw or put into the navigable waters of the Little Annessex river any stone, earth, shells, timber or other substance tending to fill up the said river or obstruct the navigation between the railroad wharf and Tangier sound; nor shall it be lawful to anchor or place any boat, vessel, timber, rafts or floats of any kind in said river between said points in the track of inward or outward bound vessels, or to hinder and delay the passage of any such vessels in or out; and any person who shall be guilty of either of the offences above mentioned shall forfeit and pay a fine of not less than twenty nor more than one hundred dollars, at the discretion of the justice trying the same, to be recovered with costs as other small debts before a justice of the peace of said county, in the name of the State, one-half for the use of the school fund of said county, the other half for the use of the informer; and if any boat or vessel, while anchored or placed in said river contrary to this sub-title of this article, shall be collided with and damaged by any inward or outward bound vessel, the owner thereof shall not be entitled to recover for any such loss or injury, but this sub-title of this article and the violation thereof shall be a full justification of such inward or outward bound vessel so colliding.
